

I can't begin to tell you how disgusted I am with Sinclair Broadcasting. I hope you take a long hard look at this corporate owned station that is forcing it's affiliates to interrupt regular scheduled programming to view an hour long political ad. Let me also say that I don't care that the movie is about John Kerry. The movie could be about George Bush or Dick Cheney or Bill Clinton as far as I'm concerned. It's an obvious attempt at political presidential election sabbotage. Clearly they are trying to sway the election. If they decide to put this conservative propaganda on television then they need to put the liberal propaganda on as well. Show Michael Moore's new film. Let's let everybody see the lies of both sides. Because that all this is.

I hope that as the FCC you would make a decision for the people and against Sinclair. This is only yet another exampmle of how big media is suffocating journalism and democracy itself.

Sincerely,
Jolee Moffett
